

Hampton Yards Improvement Week – Win the Chance for a Free Yard Consultation! November 13th, 15th, and 17th

The Virginia Cooperative Extension is hosting Hampton Yards Improvement Week classes November 13th, 15th, and 17th to help Hampton residents learn how to landscape more with less money! The classes will include turf grass seeding and care, weed control, tree and shrub pruning, planting the best way and time, and landscape design tips. Participants will be entered into a drawing for a free yard consultation that will serve as the last session of the series. Register by November 1st by calling 727-1401 or emailing megank@vt.edu. Seating is limited, so register now!

Classes held on November 13th and 15th will be held at the Peninsula Town Center Community Room, 4410 E. Claiborne Square, Ste. 210. Free parking is available across from Five Guys Burgers in the Target parking lot.

The session on November 17th will be held at the yard of the Free Yard Consultation winner!

For more information about this educational opportunity, contact Megan Tierney, 727-1401 or megank@vt.edu.
